
Policy Document

(December, 2023)

Main Objective:

The Literary Scientist hones to prioritise Undergraduate and Postgraduate students in their endeavours to publish original research materials with nominal amount for publication purposes. It is NOT FOR PROFIT publication platform, aiming to provide a broad spectrum for the research enthusiasts.

PUBLICATION POLICY:

Regarding Charges Of Publication :

- Students : Rs. 100
- Research Scholars: Rs. 250
- Faculty: Rs. 1000

It is to be noted that the fees taken on account of publication is solely for the purposes of publication, website building and management and not for profit.

Regarding Selection:

- Students of UG and PG shall be allowed to make necessary changes in their submissions on the grounds of incorrect formatting according to TLS' stylesheet (as per submissions tab of theliteraryscientist.org)
- Papers are to be sent for blind review to the Editorial Board in two segments — for students and for scholars/faculties.
- Reviewers shall engage in critically analysing the papers, keeping in mind the guidelines of reviewing.* (see note)
- Students will be e-mailed after the review if there are unavoidable mistakes and non-literary conduct in their research papers. They will be given guidance accordingly and be allowed to re-submit their document after proofreading.

Regarding Result :

- The Literary Scientist will procure a date after the submission portal is closed (according to the given date in CFP), and publish the names of those whose papers have been selected for publication.
 - The fees shall be paid thereafter through an online portal which will be given on the website.
-

Note:

- Fees is taken solely for development of TLS

(New online equipments/ domain purchases/ website development/ boosting journal promotion)

- There will be Open Access for all the research papers published in TLS.

The Literary Scientist aims to encourage everyone in the Academia and seeks to provide transparency to the researchers as well as the followers.

- Policy document can be subject to change whenever necessary

The document can be amended in future and in case of such an action the renewed amended policy shall also be uploaded to the website.

- Guidelines for Blind Review : ***

- The editorial board or the review committee members will note down the changes/alterations to be done in their respective research papers and comment their guidances to improve the paper (if necessary) , and mail us back to editor-in-chief@theliteraryscientist.org

Or

swagata_assistanteditor@theliterraryscientist.org

so that we can send it back to the respective authors and ask for their cooperation regarding the matter.

- The reviewers are requested to guide the researchers in their purpose and encourage their participation , along with the critical notes from their research paper.

Plagiarism Policy :

Author(s) are requested to ensure that their submission(s) do not have more than 10% plagiarism.

[Author(s) are requested to submit a plagiarism report along with their respective submission(s), at the time of submitting their contributions to "The Literary Scientist A Multi-Disciplinary Journal for Literature and Science".]